

Documents regarding State Aid

Below, find the following documents relevant for analyzing State Aid:

- A decision of the European Commission regarding the analysis of the service of general economic interest (SGEI) for a public hospital in Czech Republic. This document outlines the analysis of Altmark criteria and the decision to grant SGEI character, based on the respective information. This decision is useful as guidance for similar analyses on projects related to hospitals.

Download

- A decision of the European Commission addressing the analysis approach for state aid in relation to the rehabilitation of a tourist objective, in Poland, within which the analysis of local impact was applied. This document can be used, together with the explanations from the presentation, for similar projects.

Download

- EC Guide for defining the general economic interest service (SGEI), a document that includes definitions and analysis. The respective document is useful and is still up to date, being a summary on Q&A for SGEI, the recent modifications are minor and they do not affect the content. Additional details on the general interest economic services, including the document, are to be found under the following link:

http://ec.europa.eu/competition/state_aid/overview/public_services_en.html

Download

- A document that has elements which provide details and substantiates aspects related to the analysis of hospitals from the viewpoint of state aid. The excerpt is part of the communication draft of the EC on state aid on the bases of article 107, paragraph (1) of TFEU.

Download

- Additionally, in order to support potential applicants, we supply the Information Note sent by the EC to all relevant authorities in relation to the interpretation and definition of the phrase “small scale infrastructure”, which is to be found under article 3, paragraph 1, letter e) of ERDF Regulation 1301/2013.

Download