

Project code	ROHU-48
Project title	Development of an integrated response capacity to cross-border emergency situations
Priority axis	5 – Improve risk-prevention and disaster management (Cooperation on risk-prevention and disaster management)
Investment priority	5/b-Promoting investment to address specific risks, ensuring disaster resilience and developing disaster management systems
Objective	The main objective of the DIRCCES project is to improve the safety level of the population in the cross-border region and thus to mitigate the social, economic and environmental costs of natural disasters in this territory.
Partnership	Lead Beneficiary: Town of Aleșd (Romania)
	Beneficiary: Sinteiu Commune (Romania) Szarvas Town Self-Government (Hungary)
TOTAL Budget	485.400,00 Euro, out of which ERDF, 399.532,74 Euro
Summary	The following activities are foreseen to be implemented within the project:- - organizing a joint event in Aleșd: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - elaboration of a common strategy regarding different scenarios that may occur in case of emergency - organizing a common event in Sinteiu that will consist of simulations and exercises - organizing in Szarvas a joint activity that will consist of 5 info days in order to inform the residents of the area about the importance of risk prevention and environmental protection, but also to create links between the inhabitants of the area and the emergency services - purchase of specific equipment (electric generator, motor pumps, intervention vehicles, tractor, snow plow, etc.). Project results: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - 38.789 persons safeguarded by improved emergency response services in the area of Aleșd, Șinteiu și Szarvas - organizing 5 info days in Szarvas - organizing two joint events in Tinteiu and Aleșd - purchase of specific equipment (electric generator, motor pumps, intervention vehicles, tractor, snow plow, etc.). - a common strategy regarding various scenarios that may occur in case of emergency