

2 nd Open Call- Normal Projects
Project code	ROHU-180
Project title	NoDrugs Drug prevention without borders
Priority axis	6 – Promoting cross-border cooperation between institutions and citizen (Cooperation of institutions and communities)
Investment priority	11/b, Promoting legal and administrative cooperation and cooperation between citizens and institutions (Cooperation for citizens)
Implementation period	15 months (1 st of December 2018 – 29 th of February 2020)
Objective	The main objective of the project is to harmonize drug prevention programs on both sides of the border, to present these programs to each partner, to initiate exchange of experience and to translate this knowledge into practice – all in order to reduce drug use in the region.
Partnership	Lead Beneficiary: St Gellert Association for the support of abroad Hungarians (Hungary)
	Project Partner: PP2: Diaspora Foundation (Romania)
TOTAL Budget	€ 67,344.00, out of which, ERDF € 57,242.40
Summary	The project ROHU-180 aims to involve young people at risk of social exclusion in multicultural activities and to strengthen the international dimension of youth activities and the role of workers and organizations in the field of drug prevention, as support structures for young people. The main activities of the project are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> organizing of training sessions for the team members of both project partners, regarding common problems faced by adolescents and young people; organizing in Romania and Hungary of dedicated camps for young people, in order to create opportunities, to gain new experiences, to develop self-knowledge about contemporary drug consumption; establishing dedicated clubs in Romania and Hungary and organizing events, where young people can express themselves

	through performing arts, practicing sports and participating in debates; <ul style="list-style-type: none"> organization on behalf of the Lead Beneficiary in Hungary of a drug related exhibition, covering all stages of a drug addiction. The Programme Output Indicator is „11/b2 Number of people directly involved in cross-border cooperation initiatives”. Project ROHU – 180 contributes to this indicator by reaching a number of 2,230 people that participated in the drug prevention-raising awareness campaigns and events. The collaboration of the partners within this project helps young people feel motivated to build healthy, constructive and supportive communities in their localities.
Main results	The project's main results are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - a team of 30 people from both sides of the border trained to offer professional help to the youngster in the field of drug prevention and addiction; - 2 dedicated camps for young people, where they could learn the basics of contemporary help methods in the field of drug prevention; - 2 club events organized for vulnerable young people, to get acquainted with the harmful effects of drugs and to spend qualitative time with their peers, exchanging experience and communicating; - 1 large exhibition, targeting 1000 people, regarding the use of drugs and the negative consequences that occur from it; - 2 conferences for disseminating the results of the project to local communities, state representatives, civic organizations which deal with drug prevention and representatives of media from the cross-border region.