

3rd Open Call for Proposals
Project code	ROHU-407
Project title	PrimCare RO-HU Cross-border access to high quality emergency services and primary medical assistance in small communities
Priority axis	4 – Improving health-care services (Cooperating on health-care and prevention)
Investment priority	9/a - Investment in health and social infrastructure which contributes to national, regional and local development, reducing inequalities in terms of health status, promoting social inclusion through improved access to social, cultural and recreational services and the transition from institutional to community-based services.
Implementation period	24 months (1 st of November 2019 – 31 of October 2021)
Objective	The main objective is to develop cross-border coordinated community-based healthcare services within the medical permanence center of Arduș and the primary care practices from Napkor optimally addressing the population's needs for emergency intervention, prevention, early identification and effective treatment, focusing on circulatory system diseases which represent the leading cause of death in the region and at EU level.
Partnership	Lead Beneficiary: UAT Arduș Town (Romania)
	Project Partners: PP2: Napkor Local Government of the village (Hungary) PP3: CREST Association (Romania)
TOTAL Budget	€ 545,102.11 out of which ERDF € 463,336.77
Summary	Project ROHU-407 aims to improve the health-care services provision conditions, development of healthcare workers competencies and skills and to create and implement of harmonized good practice guidelines. The main activities are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Renovating and equipping (59 pieces of furniture and medical devices) the medical permanence center of Arduș; • Purchasing new equipment (furniture, equipment&technology, medical devices) for 2 primary healthcare practices from Napkor; • Organizing a 2 days (12 hours) interactive emergency training focusing on cardio-respiratory resuscitation, adapted to specific training needs of healthcare personnel in primary healthcare units

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organizing a 2 days (12 hours) specialized professional training on management of vascular damage in hypertension adapted to specific training needs of healthcare personnel in primary healthcare units • Developing harmonized good practice guidelines in resuscitation, at the primary healthcare providers' level. • Developing harmonized good practice guidelines in management of circulatory system diseases, at the primary healthcare providers' level. The Programme Output Indicators are „9/a 1 Population having access to improved health services” and „9/a 2 Number of health-care departments affected by modernized equipment”. Through project ROHU – 407, a number of 29,199 persons benefit from improved health care services and 3 health-care departments are more efficient using modernized equipment purchased through the project.
Main results	Through the project ROHU – 407, the infrastructure condition of 3 community-based primary healthcare practices is improved and ensure prevention, early identification and effective treatment of cardiovascular diseases across the border. As a result, more patients are treated locally, because the project activities facilitates rapid access of the population to safe medical care, provided according to standardized and comparable protocols in place across the border, ensuring good quality service provision for all citizen in the targeted area.